

Department: English

Course Name: PK Language Arts

Course Description:

Pre-Kindergarten language arts focuses on developing oral language skills, print awareness, vocabulary, and an appreciation for literature. Focus will be given to the development of an understanding of words and their meanings. The students will also be given much practice in following directions, class discussion, retelling of stories, sharing feelings and experiences, and an introduction to letter recognition and formation. A great deal of focus will be on nursery rhymes and rhyming skills.
