

Department: World Languages

Course Name: PK Spanish

Course Description:

This course introduces students to Spanish, creating a lifelong interest in language learning. Students are exposed to the language through role-play, songs, games, poems and dialogues. Emphasis is placed on recognizing letters and sounds, understanding simple vocabulary and learning songs.

Content:

Vocabulary:

Greetings

Commands

Days of the week

Numbers 1-10

Family and Friends

Animals

Weather

Skills:

Students will develop curiosity for the Spanish Language

Students will pronounce words properly

Students will use the correct vocabulary when speaking about personal situation

Students will gain global awareness and respect for other cultures

Text and Materials:

Websites such as: rockalingua.com, brainpopjr.com and getepic.com

Santillana Thematic library

Methods of Instruction:

Lecture

Games

Conversational exchange (teacher-students, student-student)

Methods of Evaluation:

Class participation

Group activities

Dialogue