

Department: Visual Art

Course Name: American Art

Course Description:

This course is taught as a part of the fifth grade quarter rotation. Students will take inspiration from the social studies curriculum to develop several art projects that will reinforce what is learned in the classroom. They will work with a variety of mediums to explore the reasons that art works have been created throughout American history, and create several art pieces of their own, using that knowledge. In completing projects, students will learn to implement the elements and principles of design, which are the building blocks of every art project.
